

Many Many Happy Returns of the Day Krushaliiiii ❤️🎉🎊🎁

Where do I start First of all I'm extremely sorry I could not make it to India for your birthday even though I said multiple times I'm coming back and every time when I said that I could see that happiness on your face and excitement in your eyes.

Can you believe it!! Its been such a long year just like some roller coaster ride, we had fights, had arguments, times when we didn't speak for weeks and what not. Even between all these we shared a lot more happy moments which I will cherish for the rest of my life. The smile, the excitement and the little tears you had jab you were unboxing the ring and reading that note..... The time you were excited to go home for Diwali, meet friends, everytime you teasing me about having paneer angara with garlic naan 😊 aur fir mai jab return aau tab kya khana hai? Chocolate Maggi 😊..... Ye kesa bhed bhav madam?? The time you were worried about getting an admission for masters, fir jab admission mila to Parul University me alag prblms. But in the end, see where you have reached and I am sooo soo proud of you. I just wish you keep growing and always be that happy, sarcastic and mature women you are. Aur apke sense of humor ki kya hi tareef karu aab vo toh har jagha famous hai !!!!

You have been an amazing friend who always pushed me to do better in some or the other way. So many deep conversations...honestly I have lost a track of it. I can't thank enough. I'll always be grateful for your presence, be it during the times when I felt low, helping me in dealing with panic attacks and being there when I needed your help. There have been multiple occasions where I felt the happiest when we were just on a call.... Its like I forget about all my problems for a moment and actually feel happy from inside. I feel like you are the only person who actually knows how I have survived almost 3 years in the US and there is no one I would trust when it comes to keeping my secrets a secret expect you. Thank you for being there and keeping your presence in my life.

If you are fighting and dealing with your own problems which if you'll never share until they are sorted so I'll always pray you have that extra wide smile on your face all the time kyuki tab vo helipad zyada ache se chamakta hai 😊. Jokes aside, I'll always be the first person to cheer you up and have your back in every situation.

Past few weeks have not been as good as I or you were expecting I'm sorry for all the mess I have created throughout this year and in the past. I have said things which I shouldn't have and from then things are not the same between us as it used to be ...I'll cherish what we had and will always respect whatever place we hold in each other's lives, I would always wish if things could get normal as they were back in 2023/2024.

I hope you liked this small surprise from my side. Cheers to the kindest soul I have ever met!!! 🍷

Once Again. ... Happy 21st!!!

I miss youuuu 😭😭😭

Yours,

Secular Mitra (Manav Patel)
